“Magee is the kind of place you hope you never need, but, if you do, you are grateful that it is right here in the heart of our community. For over 56 years Magee has made a major impact on the lives of individuals with disabilities, as well as their families. The Creative Therapy Center and Healing Gardens will take the level of care provided to a much higher level. We are very excited to bring it to life.”

— Bill Conrad, Chairman,
Magee Foundation
Board of Trustees

“When I think about The Creative Therapy Center and Healing Gardens I think first about each patient and the incredibly unique and innovative ways we will be able to provide care to them. They will not experience this anywhere else.”

— Guy Fried, MD, Chief Medical Officer and 25 year member of Team Magee
